LINDA AND TED JOHNSON RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP HELLER HURWICZ ECONOMICS INSTITUTE | UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Sept 2014-Dec 2014

The Linda and Ted Johnson Undergraduate Research Fellowship is awarded by the Heller-Hurwicz Economics Institute (HHEI) – an institute housed within the University of Minnesota which supports frontier economic research – and is aimed at supporting undergraduate students as they progress towards the completion of an independent project or senior thesis in economics. The project was supervised by V.V. Chari.

TALLE FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS (CLA) | UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

May 2013-May 2014

The Talle Family Scholarships "inspire, reward, and support high achieving students representative of the academic excellence of the College of Liberal Arts (CLA) with full senior-year scholarships." The scholarships are awarded to students who show exceptional achievement in their major fields. Each department of the CLA is invited to nominate two students for the scholarship. Ten awardees are ultimately selected from the nominated group. The award is highly competitive. More information about the scholarship and its recent recipients can be found here.

STOCKMAN SCHOLARSHIP DEPT. OF ECONOMICS | UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Sept 2012-May 2013

The Stockman Scholarship is an annual scholarship given by the Department of Economics to two incoming juniors for overall academic excellence.
