SPRING 2019 INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Office of Economic Policy, U.S. Treasury Department is currently looking for college students interested in Economics or Public Policy for our SPRING 2019 internship session.

Our program runs year round with three sessions: January through May, May through August, and September through December. Our program is about substance. Interns are generally assigned a long-term research project as well as smaller projects. They are also expected to attend Congressional Hearings and think tank lectures and presentations and summarize these events for the Assistant Secretary and other senior level economists.

Candidates should have strong writing skills, be able to work independently, be well organized and highly motivated. Interns are expected to work between 30 and 40 hours a week. There is some flexibility in the work hours if you are taking classes while in D.C. Our intern positions are unpaid. Under some circumstances, we do provide a subway subsidy to help defray commuting expenses.

If you are interested in applying, submit your resume (with your GPA included), a copy of your transcript (unofficial is ok), two writing samples and three references (names and contact information) to Holly.Posin2@treasury.gov.

Applications are due by NOVEMBER 9, 2018.

U.S. citizenship required. All candidates must be currently enrolled as a full time student in a college or university. For further information, please contact Holly Posin, Office of Economic Policy, U.S. Treasury Department, 202-622-2020.
