Econ 721b. International Trade II

Day / time: Monday 2:00-5:00
Course Type: Graduate
Course term: Spring
Instructor(s): Lorenzo Caliendo
Samuel Kortum
Location: WATSON A30

This course is the second part of the International Trade sequence. We have divided it in two: Part I is taught by Samuel Kortum and Part II by Lorenzo Caliendo.

The course is organized around six major issues: (i) Trade and Climate Policy; (ii) Trade Wars: Causes and Consequences; (iii) Trade, Intellectual Property, and Growth; (iv) Firms and Trade; (v) Trade and Organizations; and (vi) Trade Policy and Labor Markets. In addressing these topics we will deconstruct basic theories of international trade to bring out their insights and quantitative implications. The course involves a mix of theory, data, and computation.

Semester offered: Spring
