Econ 732b. Advanced Economic Development (IDE)

Course Type: Graduate
Course term: Spring
Year: 2019
Instructor(s): Michael Boozer

Examines the models of classical and modern economists to explain the transition of developing economies into modern economic growth, as well as their relevance to income distribution, poverty alleviation and human development outcomes. For students not pursuing a Ph.D. in Economics. This course will focus on development theory and policy and cover many of the topics included in Econ 730a and Econ 731b.

Semester offered: Spring

Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/courses/econ-732b-advanced-economic-development-ide