Predoctoral Scholars

Professor James J. Heckman of the University of Chicago's Center for the Economics of Human Development is seeking several Predoctoral Scholars for the upcoming academic year. Our Predoctoral Program is designed as a 2- to 3-year research experience in preparation for graduate study wherein candidates gain valuable experience in data analysis, programming, and engage in the development and direction of research. We would be appreciative if you could share this opportunity with qualified students at your institution.
