Econ 455b. Information Economy

Course Type: Undergraduate
Course term: Not offered
Year: 2014

Permission of instructor required.

The economics of information, communication, and electronic commerce. The communications infrastructure—telephone, broadband, and wireless communications—and the regulation and adoption of these technologies; the basic economics of selected uses of the Internet; the organization of businesses as they are affected by new communications technologies; intellectual property and antitrust issues in the information economy.

Prerequisite: introductory microeconomics.

Undergrad Course Category: Industrial Organization

Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/courses/econ-455b-information-economy