Giovanni Maggi

Working Papers

“International Climate Agreements and the Scream of Greta“ (slides), March 2020 (with Robert Staiger)

“Anti-Lobbying Gains from International Agreements,” October 2019

“Are Trade Agreements Good For You?”, July 2019 (with Ralph Ossa)

“Choked By Red Tape? The Political Economy of Wasteful Trade Barriers,” May 2019 (with Monika Mrazova and Peter J. Neary)

“Learning By Ruling and Trade Disputes,” February 2019 (with Robert Staiger)

“Trade Disputes and Settlement,” working paper version (with Robert Staiger)

Online Data Appendix

“Uncertainty and Trade Agreements,” working paper version (with Nuno Limão).

Online Appendix

Online Appendix

“Trade Agreements as Endogenously Incomplete Contracts,” working paper version (with Henrik Horn and Robert Staiger).

“A Political-Economy Theory of Trade Agreements,” working paper version (with Andres Rodriguez-Clare).

“Costly contracting in a Long-Term Relationship,” working paper version (with Pierpaolo Battigalli).

“Imperfect Contracting,” working paper version of “Rigidity, Discretion and the Costs of Writing Contracts” (with Pierpaolo Battigalli).

Back to bio page
Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/maggi