Econ 211b. Economic Performance and Challenges in India

Day / time: T/Th 10:30 - 11:20 am
Course Type: Undergraduate
Course term: Spring
Not offered
Visiting Instructor(s): Rakesh Mohan

India’s transition from being one of the poorest countries in the world to having one of the fastest-growing economies. Economic reform processes, trade and policy implications, and changes within the agriculture, industry, and service sectors.

Prerequisites: introductory microeconomics and macroeconomics.

Semester offered: Not offered
Undergrad Course Category: Development

Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/courses/econ-211b-economic-performance-and-challenges-india