Econ 546a Growth and Macroeconomics (IDE)

Day / time: Mon/Weds. 9:00-10:20
Course Type: Graduate
Course term: Fall
Year: 2017
Instructor(s): Fabrizio Zilibotti
Location: Room B60, WATSON, 60 Sachem St.

This course explores core concepts in growth theory and macroeconomics aimed at providing a good grounding in the theoretical concepts as well as their applications to practical realities in economics. The course will cover topics in macroeconomics, including productivity, capital markets, labor markets, trade, financial crises and aggregate supply and demand. For IDE students.

Semester offered: Fall

Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/courses/econ-546a-growth-and-macroeconomics-ide