Introduction to mechanism design with non-rational agents. Consideration of how optimal institutions are structured when agents are non-rational and how they differ from their counterparts with rational agents.

Prerequisites: ECON 115 or equivalent; ECON 121.

Semester offered: Not offered
Undergrad Course Category: Labor
Public
Course Description: Course Description