The aim of this course is to analyze the ways that space affects economic behavior. The course develops the required quantitative techniques to analyze detailed spatial information on economic activity and pairs them with simple models that determine how economic activity is allocated across space.

Click here for course Website.

Prerequisites: Math 118 or 120 or instructor’s consent.

Semester offered: Fall
Undergrad Course Category: Development
Methodology
Public
Course Description: Course Description

Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/courses/econ-433a-economics-space