Econ 500a. General Economic Theory: Microeconomics

Day / time: Monday/Wednesday, 10:00-11:20
Course Type: Graduate
Course term: Fall
Year: 2017
Instructor(s): Truman F. Bewley, Mira Frick
Location: 77 Prospect St. Rm. A002

The topics are consumer and firm behavior, decision making under uncertainty, competitive, oligopolistic, and monopolistic markets, general equilibrium theory, overlapping generations models, and growth theory, as well as game theory under complete and incomplete information.

Semester offered: Fall

Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/courses/econ-500a-general-economic-theory-microeconomics