Econ 702b. International Economics (IDE)

Course Type: Graduate
Course term: Not offered
Year: 2015

International trade theory, International Finance and their implications for economic policy. The text will most likely be by Krugman and Obstfeld. Basic training of trade theory and open-macroeconomics with discussion of the implication of these theories and empirical findings to actual formation of policy and the conduct of international institutions. Discussions of Hamada’s recent experiences with the WTO, the IMF and the Japanese Government.

Semester offered: Not offered

Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/courses/econ-702b-international-economics-ide