Econ 280a. Poverty under Postindustrial Capitalism

Day / time: T/Th 2:30 - 3:45pm
Course Type: Undergraduate
Course term: Fall
Instructor(s): Gerald Jaynes

Political economy of contemporary social welfare policy as it has been affected by economic restructuring, the development of the underclass, and the effects of immigration on the economy and its social structure.

Prerequisite: introductory microeconomics.

[Also AFAM 282a]

Semester offered: Not offered
Undergrad Course Category: Labor
Poverty
Public

Source URL: https://economics.yale.edu/courses/econ-280a-poverty-under-postindustrial-capitalism