Emanuele Colonnelli

RESEARCH PROFESSIONAL

Professor Emanuele Colonnelli seeks one or two full time Research Professionals for a period of at least one year but ideally two years. Research Professionals work with faculty to collect data, maintain databases, conduct statistical analysis, and provide other support associated with faculty research. Professor Colonnelli researches policy-relevant topics in finance, development, and labor. His research has been published in the Journal of Finance and the Journal of Financial Economics.

The ideal candidate will have (i) a strong quantitative background, (ii) strong computer skills including programming (especially Stata, and ideally SAS and Matlab), (iii) strong writing skills, (iv) the ability to work independently to solve problems, and (v) a long-term interest in pursuing research in economics and finance. Background in economics or finance is a plus, but not necessary—candidates with strong technical backgrounds and writing skills who are looking for more exposure to economics are welcome to apply.

The preferred start date is August 1, 2018, though other dates may be considered. Applications will be evaluated on a rolling basis, but all applications submitted by April 16, 2018, will be given full consideration.

We pay an annual salary of $48,000 and providing standard benefits such as health insurance.
