LEADERSHIP
ACTIVITIES

Students' Center of Universidad del Pacífico (CEUP): President

I was elected President for 2008. CEUP is the most important group of students at UP. It gathers 35 students from different careers and years. As President of CEUP, I was in charge of the organization of many types of extracurricular events (academic, cultural, sports and social, among others).

Grupo Convergencia: Member and Editor

It is a college association that seeks to generate spaces for reflection on national problems and the discussion of proposed solutions at universities. To this end, it had a magazine and currently organizes forums and events. I was a member of the Publications department, where I served as editor of Economy and Politics sections during 2005-2007.
